JACKSON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT’S EARLY COLLEGE HIGH SCHOOL PROGRAM PRESENTS

Mr. & Miss Freshman Pageant

LEADING TO LEAVE A LEGACY

Bennie G. Thompson Academic and Civil Rights Research Center Auditorium

NOVEMBER 9, 2018
Welcome to the first annual Mr. and Miss Early College High School Pageant! Today’s event helps move us toward our vision, “we envision the ECHS becoming a top ranked academic program wherein our staff and students demonstrate growth and increasing proficiency while seeking opportunities to explore the world as a classroom in order to see, experience, and do what is learned...”

Because it is our mission “to create a top ranked academic program by facilitating authentic educational experiences (both inside and outside of the classroom) which empower students and staff to serve as agents of change while engaging in personal, professional, and social transformation...” we provide opportunities for students to gain and employ skills which are beneficial to success in a myriad of professions.

Through this pageant and election process, students have engaged the community and promoted local businesses through ad sales, they have developed the effective use of charisma and communication skills as they have campaigned, and will refine stage presence and critical thinking as they respond to on stage questions or as they present their platforms before a live audience.

This is the aim of the Mississippi College and Career Readiness Standards. Students become leaders and agents of change within our communities as they build confidence and competence through the application of what is learned in classrooms.

We not only hope that you enjoy the pageant, but also hope that you will continue to support these scholars, this academic program, and the businesses who have demonstrated their commitment to the ECHS via ad purchases.

Thank you for your attendance! Now, join us as we “Take Flight to Greater Heights!”

Thankful to serve,

Dr. Chineolo Bosah Evans
